

Photo courtesy of Cameron University

Adult Learners

Your one-stop shop for interactive college planning

OKcollegestart.org is the official source for planning a college education in Oklahoma. The site offers resources specifically for adult students, including information about financial aid and balancing schoolwork with other aspects of your life. You can search by keywords and compare colleges, and all user registrations include a free email address that can be used to communicate with colleges. Sign up for a free account today!

Benefits:

- Learn about the Reach Higher degree completion program
- Resources for student veterans and active duty military
- ACT, GRE, and SAT test prep tools
- Browse careers based on previous work history
- Practice for job interviews
- Explore programs and majors
- Search for scholarships

For more information, visit www.OKcollegestart.org or contact OKcollegestart staff at the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education at 866.443.7420 or OKcollegestart@ocap.org.