There are no resolved issues in this release.

2. WORK-BASED LEARNING MODULE ADDED TO MORE SCHOOLS

The Work-Based Learning module has been added to all North Dakota schools with 8th grade student enrollment. The Work-Based Learning Module, including the Work-Based Opportunities and Compass activities, can be utilized by 8th grade students as they begin to evaluate work-based opportunities. School professionals can manage organizations and opportunities at these additional schools using the Work-Based Learning tools within the Professional Center. The additional schools include:

To learn more about the Work-based Learning Module, go to the Getting Start page in the Resources section in the RUReady.ND.gov Professional Center.

The screenshot shows the RUReady.ND.gov Professional Center interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Students & Groups', 'Reports', 'Resources', 'Communication', 'Colleges & Applications', 'Work-Based Learning', and 'Administration'. A secondary blue bar contains 'Getting Started', 'Lesson Plans', 'Resources', 'Compass', 'CareerView^{VR}', and 'Add-On Services'. The main content area is titled 'Getting Started' and features a 'Quick Reference Guides' section with various links categorized under: Professional Center, Student Account Management, Milestones, Reporting and Reviewing, Surveys, Scholarships, Assessments, School-2-College-2-Work (middle school module), Scheduling and Messaging, Assignment and Curriculum Builder, Work-Based Learning Module, and ASCA Standards Alignment. Red arrows highlight the 'Resources' menu item, the 'Getting Started' link, and the 'Work-Based Learning Module' section.
